SAFETY REQUIREMENTS:

1. NO ALCHOLIC BEVERAGES will be allowed in/on any tow vehicle.
2. Drivers of any and all vehicles in the parade must have a valid driver's license and be at least 18 years of age; drivers will be required to show valid driver's license at start of parade and are not permitted to consume any alcohol before or during parade.
3. PLEASE respect and listen to Parade Marshall instructions
4. Begin line-up at 1:30 pm. You must be in place by 3:30 pm.
Parade starts at 4:00pm
5. All entries must have a minimum of 4 walkers; 2 walkers per axle is required.
6. Be aware of your speed. Do not go too fast, but do not go so slowly that there is a large distance between you and the entry ahead of you.
Stay 20 feet apart.
7. If an emergency occurs, please notify the closest parade marshall and/or police officer immediately.
8. We ask that all parade attendees be aware of the crowd around them. If observers are getting too close to the entries, please do your part to encourage them to scoot back to a reasonable & safe distance or notify a parade marshall or police officer

PARADE TIPS:

1. There will be 1st place prizes for the following four categories:
1. Krewe 2. Community 3. Marching/Walking 4. TRUCK/CAR/VAN
2. All units should be decorated in Mardi Gras and/or Krewe themed festival style. Costume, dress, and performances should be community appropriate. No lewd decorations, throws, or costumes allowed.
3. Be sure to SLOW DOWN IN FRONT OF THE JUDGE'S STAND SO THEY CAN SEE YOU!
4. Judges will be scoring on decorations, theme, parade etiquette, enthusiasm, etc.
5. Please do not throw trinkets, candy, confetti, etc. directly at the judges or announcers. It can be dangerous and will not affect your score positively.
6. Make sure you have plenty of throws and be careful not to toss all your throws out at the start of the parade or you will run out long before the end of the parade. Toss or hand out your throws gently.
7. In an effort to reduce the amount of litter, please do not throw or hand out brochures, pamphlets, etc. No business cards or confetti should be shot from cannons.
8. Unless it is an emergency, do not stop during the parade. Exception, if you are performing a song or dance, you may stop in front of the judge's stand for a brief minute.
9. Have fun and be safe!!!!!!!!!!!!

Line-up and Parade Route to be determined. Updates will be made via email address provided in application. Please be watching for updates!!!
